

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: September 16, 2026

Last Updated: September 16, 2026

Privacy Policy

One Safe Seattle respects your privacy and is committed to being transparent about how information is collected and used when you visit our website, join our network, or communicate with us.

Information We Collect

We may collect information that you voluntarily provide to us, including your name, email address, organization, job title, or other information submitted through forms on our website.

We may also automatically collect limited technical information when you visit the website, such as your browser type, device type, IP address, referring website, pages visited, and general website usage information.

How We Use Your Information

We may use information collected through the website to:

- Send One Safe Seattle news, event information, resources, and network updates
- Respond to questions or requests
- Provide information about opportunities to participate in One Safe Seattle
- Improve our website and communications
- Understand how visitors interact with our website
- Maintain the security and functionality of the website

Email Communications

If you join the One Safe Seattle email list, we may send you updates about events, resources, coalition activities, and opportunities to connect.

You can unsubscribe from marketing emails at any time by using the unsubscribe link included in our emails.

Cookies and Analytics

Our website may use cookies and similar technologies to support website functionality, understand visitor activity, measure website performance, and improve the user experience.

Additional information is available in our Cookie Policy.

Third-Party Services

We may use trusted third-party services for website hosting, analytics, email communications, forms, and other website functions. These providers may process limited information as necessary to provide their services.

Their handling of information is subject to their own privacy policies and terms.

How We Protect Information

We take reasonable administrative and technical measures to protect information submitted through our website. However, no website, internet transmission, or electronic storage system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

Sharing Your Information

One Safe Seattle does not sell your personal information.

We may share information with service providers that help us operate the website and communicate with our network, when required by law, or when reasonably necessary to protect our rights, users, or website.

Your Choices

You may choose not to provide personal information through the website. You may also unsubscribe from email communications at any time.

Depending on where you live, you may have additional rights concerning your personal information under applicable privacy laws.

Children's Privacy

The One Safe Seattle website is intended for a professional and general adult audience and is not directed toward children under 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13 through this website.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy as our website, organization, or practices change. Updates will be posted on this page with a revised "Last Updated" date.

Contact Us

For questions about this Privacy Policy or how information is handled by One Safe Seattle, please contact us through the contact information provided on our website.